

Learn How We Can Have Cleaner Rivers and Fewer Floods

The Zumbro Watershed Partnership Presents:

Water Ways Speaker Series

2nd Thursday of Each Month
7:00 p.m.

Cascade Meadow Wetlands and Environmental Science Center
2900 19th Street NW, Rochester

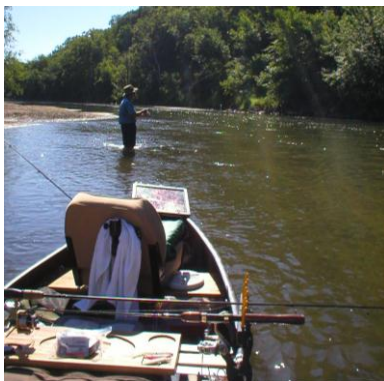

Zumbro Watershed Partnership

www.zumbrowatershed.org • 507-993-3411

January 12, 2012 “Glaciers, Farms, and Floods: the Unlikely and Surprising History (and future) of the Zumbro River Valley” Kevin Strauss, Education Coordinator, Zumbro Watershed Partnership

February 9, 2012 “River-Friendly Perennial Farming: third crops, blue earth, and cleaner Minnesota rivers” Paula Westmoreland, Co-Author of This Perennial Land

March 8, 2012 “Realize Raingardens Rochester” Rochester City Public Works Stormwater Educator

April 12, 2012 Special 4:00 p.m. Farmer Presentation:
“No-Till Farming for Fun and Profit”

7:00 Public Presentation: “Sewerman, The Legend Continues”
Dave Legvold, Farmer and Speaker

May 10, 2012 “Amazing Beavers: nature’s water control experts” Terry Lee,
Olmsted County Water Planner

June 14, 2012 “Signs of Clean Water Progress in Southern Minnesota” Beth Kallestad, Executive Director of Cannon River Watershed Partnership

For more information about these and other programs, contact Kevin Strauss, Education Coordinator, Zumbro Watershed Partnership, www.zumbrowatershed.org, education@zumbrowatershed.org, or 507-993-3411